Black Watch; D.L., Perth; rep. memb. Perth T.F.A.; Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod, Order of the Thistle 1895–1917. The 1st Visc. Stormont was cup-bearer to James VI. The celebrated judge (1st Earl of Mansfield) was 3rd s. of 5th Visc. Stormont; he obtained two patents—one conferred the earldom with remainder to his nephew, the 7th Visc. Stormont, and the other conferred that dignity with remainder to the 7th Visc. Stormont's wife; the latter was obtained under the impression that no English peerage could be granted with direct remainder to a Scottish peer; when that question was, however, established in the affirmative, the second earldom was obtained, and for many years after the death of the Lord Chief Justice both peerages were in existence in consequence of their separate entail; but in 1843 they became united in the person of the 4th Earl. Residence—Scone Palace, Perthshire. Clubs — Carlton; White's; Pratt's. Issue—

MAR, 33rd Earl of (33rd in descent from 1065). Creat. before 1404 (S.); Baron Garioch before 1404.—JOHN FRANCIS ERSKINE GOODEVE-ERSKINE, s. of Lady Frances Jemima Goodeve B. at Clifton 29 March, 1836; m. 12 Sept. 1866, Alice Mary, dau. of John Hamilton, of Hilston Park, Monmouth; M.A. Camb. 1860; assumed the name of Erskine in 1866, on the death of his uncle John, 32nd Earl, when the succession opened to him. In 1875 the Earldom restored by Queen Mary in 1565, and which had been claimed by the Earl of Kellie (the representative in the male line), was decided by the House of Lords to have been a new creation descending through heirs male only. In consequence of this decision the present peer was declared by Act of Parliament, in 1885, to have inherited the ancient Earldom of Mar, as heir general of his uncle, and as lawful heir general (through female descent) of Isabella, in her own right Countess of Mar in 1404, of John, Earl of Mar, restored by Queen Mary, in 1565, expressly through female succession and to heirs general of John, Earl of Mar, attainted in 1715, and of John Francis, 30th Earl, restored by Act of Parliament in 1824, expressly as grandson and lineal representative through his mother, Lady Frances, to the attainted Earl of 1715; a representative peer for Scotland since 1886. Residence—Villa Indiana, Monte Carlo. Clubs—Carlton; Imperial. Issue—

MAR, AND KELLIE, 12th Earl of MAR. Creat. 22 July, 1565; 14th Earl of Kellie, Creat. 12 March, 1619; Visc. Fentoun, 18 March, 1606; Baron Erskine and Allon, before 24 May, 1429; Baron Dirleton, 1603 (S.); K.T. 1911.—WALTER JOHN FRANCIS ERSKINE, s. of. the 11th Earl of Mar and Kellie. B. 29 Aug. 1865; m. 14 July, 1892, Lady Violet, dau. of 8th Earl of Shaftesbury; suc. his father 1888; ed. at Eton; late lieut. Scots. Gds.; late lieut. 3rd Batt. Argyll and Suth. Highlrs. Royal Company of Archers; Lord-Lieut. and Convenor of Clackmannan, and president Clackmannan Terr. Force Assocn. Is PREMIER VISC. and BARON of Scotland. The grandfather of present peer, who succeeded his cousin in the Earldom of Kellie, brought a claim to the Earldom of Mar before the House of Lords in 1867 and following years, but no decision was arrived at until 1875, when judgment was given to the effect that the title of Mar, conferred by Queen Mary in 1565, was an entirely new creation, which was heritable therefore in the male line only This decision placed the Earldom of Mar then in existence in the possession of the father of the present peer, who had previously borne the title of 13th Earl of Kellie only, whilst the ancient Earldom of Mar was declared by Act of Parliament in 1885 to have passed by female descent the present Earl of Mar as heir general. The 12th Earl of Kellie was a lt.-col. and served for many years in India; he was also representative peer for Scotland. The title of Mar was attainted and the family estates confiscated by Act of Parliament in 1715 (see MAR, Earl of). The 6th Lord Erskine, who was the first possessor of the title of Mar, conferred by Queen Mary, was elected regent of Scotland in 1571. Oxfordshire and Bucks L.I. ; Lord-Lieut. for the County of Oxford ; Under-Secretary of State for Colonies 1903–5 ; joint Parl. Sec. to Board of Agriculture 1917–18. The 1st Duke was the celebrated military commander ; a pension of £4,000 and the estate of Blenheim was settled on the family by Act of Parliament ; the 1st Duke was suc. by his eldest dau., who was suc. by her nephew, the 5th Earl of Sunderland, and thus the Dukedom became vested in the Spencer family. The remainder of the Dukedom according to the Act of Parliament by which it continues is unique and curious, the final clause brings in all the issue of the 1st Duke "so long as any such issue, male or female, shall continue." The 7th Duke was successively lord steward of H.M. Household, Lord-President of Council, and Viceroy of Ireland. Residences—Blenheim Palace, Woodstock. Issue—

The name and origin of this family, whose history is one of the most ancient and the most interesting on record, is traced through a long line of kings and chieftains from Niul, son of the King of Scythia (circa 1800 B.C.), whose descendant, Hermon, was the first monarch of Ireland and founder of the royal house of Ulster (circa 1200 B.C.). A branch of the family were Earls of Tyrone (peerage long extinct), and a Baronetcy was granted to the O'Neil of Clanaboys, by Charles I, for gallantry at the battle of

Edge Hill, but is presumed to be also extinct. The Earldom, creat. in 1800, became extinct in 1841, and the Viscounty, created in 1795, in 1855. TITLES DORMANT AND TITLES IN ABEYANCE

ANCIENT Baronies in the English Peerage, created only by Writ of Summons, are heritable by female heirs. A single daughter, if heir, inherits on the death of her father; if there be more than one daughter the Peerage "falls into abeyance" between all the daughters equally, and ordinarily so remains until the entire issue, male and female, is exhausted, of all the said daughters except of one. As soon as that happens, then the heir amongst the descendants of the remaining daughter at once inherits. The same result sometimes occurs through the marriage of two heirs. There are at present two small people who if they were to marry and have a son, would at their deaths jointly leave to that son some half-dozen Peerages which, though now in abeyance, would then at once emerge in the ordinary course.

But it is not necessary to wait for nature to extinguish rival heirs. The king can at any moment he chooses determine the abeyance in favour of any one of the coheirs merely by commanding the issue of a Writ of Summons addressed to that coheir, who at once succeeds to the old Peerage with the original precedence. This action is taken from time to time, and consequently it becomes a matter of interest to note who are coheirs to Peerages of this character. This course was followed in 1913 by calling out of abeyance of the ancient baronies of Furnivall, and Latymer. But in putting forward the information in the following section of the work, the reservation must be made that some of the pedigrees which have been used have not been thoroughly tested. The notes were compiled from ordinary printed books, and in pedigrees extending over four and five centuries the opportunity of error is great. Most would need to "stand fire" before the Committee for Privileges. Some of the Peerages also which have been included as in abeyance rest only upon my own view of various points of peerage law, and would involve judicial decisions thereupon before they could be brought into enjoyment.

To the abeyant Peerages various others have been added which are either dormant or under attainder. Of such of these latter, however, as are included herein it would probably be found possible to obtain a reversal of the forfeitures. But the enjoyment of any Peerage in this section involves the prior formal claim thereto, and the consequent official adjudication thereupon: and that being so, one can leave this part of the book as no more than the attempt to collect and supply information, probably accurate and doubtless of no little interest, rather than as a statement of proved and adjudicated fact which it is not, and which it would in the bulk of these cases be wholly impossible to put forward.

The Editor would welcome any additions or corrections to this part of the work.

COMPTON, Barony (writ 1572).—Coheirs: Charles Vere Townshend Mainwaring-Ellerker-Onslow $\frac{1}{2}$; Henry Ferrers Ferrers $\frac{1}{4}$; Major Charles Archibald Townshend Boultbee $\frac{1}{4}$. A Petition was presented by the first-named in 1912.

CRANSTOUN, Barony (summons 1609).—Now dormant, but heir unknown.

CROMWELL, Barony (writ 1375).—Coheirs: Duke of Abercorn $\frac{1}{6}$; Selina Frances, Mrs. Bewicke-Copley $\frac{1}{12}$; Charles John Peebles Chaplin $\frac{1}{12}$; Amabel Jemima, Mrs. Somers-Cocks $\frac{1}{12}$; Earl of Abingdon $\frac{1}{6}$; Baroness Beaumont $\frac{1}{12}$; Hon. Ivy Stapleton $\frac{1}{12}$; the heir or coheirs of Sir Philip Knevet, Bt. (d. circa 1654) $\frac{1}{6}$. Mrs. Bewicke-Copley has petitioned His Majesty for the termination of the abeyance in her favour.

CULLEN, Viscounty (Irel. 1642).—Is now vested in the Earl of Lindsey.

DACRE of Gillesland, Barony (writ 142[illegible]).—Coheirs: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{4}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{4}$; the Earl of Carlisle $\frac{1}{2}$.

DAGWORTH, Barony (writ 1347).—Coheirs: Lord Mowbray and Stourton ½; Lady Furnivall ½.

DALKEITH, Barony (Scot. 1430).—It is by no means unlikely that a Peerage of this name was vested in the late Lord Herries.

DARCY, Barony (writ 1509, but partially under attainder).—Coheirs: Lord Mowbray and Stourton ½; Lady Furnivall ½.

DAUBENEY, Barony (writ 1295).—Coheirs: Visc. Gage ⅛; the heir ⅛ of Hon. Anne Groves, the heir ⅛ of Mary Mackworth; Reginald Joseph Weld ½.

DEINCOURT, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs: The heir of Isabel Deincourt, living 1327, but if, as seems most likely, she died without issue, then the heirship devolved upon the holders of the next Barony.

DEINCOURT, Barony (writ 1332).—Coheirs: The Earl of Abingdon ½; Baroness Beaumont ¼; Hon. Ivy Stapleton ¼.

DE LA POLE, Barony (writ 1366).—Coheirs: Identical with the co-heirs to the Baronies of Morley and Monteagle.

DE LA WARR, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs: The heir of Mary West m. Sir Adrian Poynings, by whom she had three daughters and coheirs living in 1567.

DE LA WARR, Barony (writ (?) 1572).—There is a curious decision of the House of Lords in 1611 which placed Lord De La Warr in the position of being possessed of an ancient Barony in Fee. This may possibly be explained on the supposition that the three co-heirs mentioned next above had died s.p. Otherwise the supposition must be that a Barony in Fee existed dating from 1472. In that case the Barony has devolved upon the present Lord De La Warr.

DELVIN, Barony (Irel. 1389). Unquestionably a titular dignity created in the family of Fitzjohn was in existence in the family of Nugent, and devolved upon the Earls of Westmeath until 1752, when it fell into abeyance between co-heirs. Two separate Attorney-Generals of Ireland have reported in favour of the existence of a Parliamentary Barony.—Coheirs: The heir ½ of Mary, Lady Athenry; Edmond H. S. Nugent, of Portaferry House, co. Down, ½.

DE MOLEYNS, Barony (by writ Eng., 13 Jan. 1445).—In abeyance since the death of 11th Earl of Loudoun, 1920.

DESPENCER, Barony (writ 1387).—Sole heir: Lady Wentworth, who is apparently de jure Baroness Despencer.

DEVEREUX, Barony (writ 1299).—Probably the sole heir is Henry Fitzwalter Plumptre, of Goodnestone Park, Canterbury, who is at any rate coheir to an entire moiety. See also FITZWALTER.

DEVON, Earldom.—This is held under the decision of the Committee for Privileges in 1831. There is very little, if any, doubt that the decision would be reversed if the point were brought up a second time. Its effect was reversed in the Wiltes case. If that be so then the subsequent Earls of Devon hold their Earldom by writs and sittings thereunder, i.e. in fee, in which case there is now an Earldom of Devon vested in Viscountess Halifax.

DINHAM, Barony (1283).—Coheirs: Viscount Gage $\frac{1}{16}$; the heir of Hon. Anne Grove $\frac{1}{16}$; Reginald Joseph Weld $\frac{1}{16}$ Baroness Zouche $\frac{1}{32}$; Lady Somerset $\frac{1}{32}$; the heir $\frac{1}{16}$ of Mary (b. 1701), wife of Samuel Long; the heir $\frac{1}{8}$ of Mary, wife of Thomas Leighton, living circa 1625; the heir $\frac{1}{4}$ of Cecilia, wife of Thomas Kirkham, of Blagdon; the heir $\frac{1}{4}$ of Thomas Arundell, of Lanherne. A Petition on behalf of Viscount Gage and Sir Robert Bourchier Sherard Wrey, Bt., was referred to the Committee for Privileges of the House of Lords, 16 May, 1912; but on 21 May, 1914, the House declared that no evidence of the existence or descent of the barony had been produced.

DIRLETON, Barony (Scot. circa 1441).—Under attainder subject to which the heir is Alan Stepney-Gulston, of Derwydd, Llandebie, Carmarthenshire.

DUDHOPE, Viscounty (Scot.).—Dormant. Obviously it cannot be extinct. Probably the heir is Capt. H. S. Scrymgeour-Wedderburn.

DUFFUS, Barony (Scot. 1650).—The destination of the Peerage is unknown. It was claimed in 1838 by Benjamin Dunbar (by paternal descent Sutherland) as heir male, and by Rev. Eric Rudd as heir of line. The heirs male are now extinct, but a Mr. Sutherland Edwards claims as heir of line. There seems no way of ever deciding the point.

DUNBAR (Scot.).—It is not unlikely that the Marquess of Bute is also Earl of Dunbar (or March) under the re-grant of 1368.

DUNBAR, Earldom (Scot. 1605).—Now dormant in the Home family.

DUNBAR, Viscounty.—Now dormant in the Constable family.

DYNAUNT, Barony.—Coheirs: Identical with those of Dinham.

ESSEX, Earldom.—Enjoyed by H.M. the King.

FERRERS, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs: Charles Vere Townshend Mainwaring-Ellerker-Onslow ¼; Henry Ferrers Ferrers ¼; Major Charles Archibald Townshend Boultbee ½. Petitions have been presented (1912) by the two first-named, and have been referred (1914) to the House of Lords.

FERRERS of Groby, Barony (writ 1283).—Coheirs: Identical with those of Bonville.

FERRERS of Wemme, Barony.—Coheirs: Earl of Carlisle ⅛; Lord Mowbray and Stourton ⅛; Lady Furnivall ⅛; Lord de Clifford ⅛; John Francis Cust ⅛; the Earl of Albemarle ½.

FINDLATER, Earldom of (Scot. 1638).—Dormant, though obviously an heir must exist. The Barony of Ogilvy of Deskford follows the same destination.

FITZHUGH, Barony (writ 1321).—Coheirs: Viscount Hampden $\frac{1}{2}$; the Marquess of Bute $\frac{1}{2}$.

FITZ PAYNE, Barony (writ 1298-9).—Coheirs: Lord Arundell of Wardour $\frac{1}{4}$; Lord Clifford of Cudleigh $\frac{1}{4}$; Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{2}$.

FITZ WALTER, Barony (writ 1295).—In all probability the sole heir is the present Henry Fitzwalter Plumptre, of Goodnestone Park, Canterbury, who is therefore probably de jure Lord Fitz Walter. In any event, he is coheir to an undivided moiety. (See also DEVEREUX.)

FITZWARYN, Barony (writ 1283).—On 21 May, 1914, the House of Lords decided that the barony was in abeyance amongst (a) Viscount Gage; (b) Col. H. Montgomery Campbell; (c) the heir, if any, of Mary Mackworth, and (d) Reginald Joseph Weld.

FITZWILLIAM, Barony (writ 1295).—Coheirs: Identical with those of Greystock.

FORFAR, Earldom (Scot. 1661).—It is not unlikely that under the terms of remainder this Earldom has devolved upon the Duke of Hamilton.

FRANKFORT de MONTMORENCY, Viscounty (Ire. 1816).—A claim to this title was made in 1917 by Maj. Henry de Montmorency as being next of kin to the 4th Visc. (d. 1917).

FRASER, Barony (Scot. 1633).—This title is dormant, but the heir is unknown.

GARDNER, Barony (Irel. 1800 and U.K. 1806).—This title is dormant, there being two claimants.

GIFFARD, Barony (writ 1295).—In abeyance amongst the Lady Furnivall, and the coheirs of James, Lord Audley (living 1327).

GIFFARD, of Brymsfield, Barony (1283).—Coheirs as to senior moiety: the heir or heirs of James, Lord Audley $\frac{1}{2}$; as to junior moiety: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{4}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{4}$.

GLENCAIRN, Earldom (Scot.).—The heirship is contested between the heir general, viz., Sir Charles Fergusson, Bt. (undoubtedly the heir under the terms of the patent), and Sir Thomas A. A. Montgomery Cuninghame, Bt., the heir male.

GLOUCESTER, Earldom (1121).—Heir (but for attainder) Lord Stafford.

GORDON, Barony (Scot. (?) 1435).—Heritable by the heir male, Sir Bruce Seton, Bt.

GORGES, Barony (writ 1309).—Coheirs: (1) the heir or coheirs of Dame Eleanor Russell, living 1350, (2) Lord Willoughby de Broke.

GRANDISON, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs: Duke of Richmond $\frac{1}{60}$; Mrs. Gilbert Spencer Smith, of Maidenstone, Burlesdon, Hants, $\frac{1}{120}$; Susan, Lady Lennox, $\frac{1}{120}$; the Duke of Manchester $\frac{1}{60}$; Hon. J. R. Neville Stopford $\frac{1}{360}$; Hon. Mrs. Joynes $\frac{1}{360}$; Earl of St. Germans $\frac{1}{180}$; Alexander George Gordon Ross $\frac{1}{180}$; Algernon Wriothesley Russell $\frac{1}{60}$; Sir Henry Bedingfeld, Bt., $\frac{1}{12}$; the heir $\frac{1}{24}$ of Dame Elizabeth Strangways; the Countess of Yarborough $\frac{1}{18}$; the Countess of Powis $\frac{1}{18}$; the heir $\frac{1}{18}$ of Dame Alice Wake; the Earl of Loudoun $\frac{1}{24}$; Lord Grey de Ruthyn $\frac{1}{24}$; Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski $\frac{1}{18}$; May Florence Kirwan $\frac{1}{18}$; the Earl of Romney $\frac{1}{24}$; F. L. F. William Lowndes, of The Bury, Chesham $\frac{1}{12}$; William Selby-Lowndes, of Whaddon, $\frac{1}{12}$; Sir Anchitel Ashburnham-Clement, Bt., $\frac{1}{3}$.

GRENDON, Barony (writ 1299).—Heir: the heir or coheirs of Margaret, wife of Hugh de Askeby, living 1386.

GREY of Codnor, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs: Baroness Zouche $\frac{1}{18}$; Lady Somerset $\frac{1}{18}$; the heir $\frac{1}{24}$ of Mary, wife of Samuel Long, of Hampton Lodge; the heir $\frac{1}{12}$ of Mary, wife of Thomas Leighton; Mrs. Mary Gertrude Walker $\frac{1}{18}$; Miss Eveline Cornwall Legh $\frac{1}{18}$; Miss Frances Cornwall Legh $\frac{1}{18}$; the Earl of Bradford $\frac{1}{3}$; the heir $\frac{1}{3}$ of Sir John Zouche, of Codnor.

GREY de GROBY, Barony.—Coheirs: Identical with those of Bonville.

GREY de POWIS, Barony.—Coheirs: Identical with those of Powis.

GREY of Rotherfield, Barony (writ 1338).—Possibly this Barony is in abeyance, the coheirs being; the Earl of Abingdon $\frac{1}{4}$; Baroness Beaumont $\frac{1}{3}$; Hon. Ivy Stapleton $\frac{1}{8}$; the heir $\frac{1}{8}$ of Joane Mussenden.

GREY de Wilton, or Grey de Shirland, Barony (writ 1295).—Coheirs: Lord Wharton $\frac{1}{2}$; the Duke of Westminster $\frac{1}{2}$.

GREYSTOCK, Barony (writ 1295).—Coheirs: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{4}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{4}$; Earl of Carlisle $\frac{1}{2}$.

HAMILTON, Barony (Scot. 1445).—Heir: The Earl of Derby.

HARRINGTON, Barony (writ 1324).—Coheirs: Identical with those of Bonville.

HARTFELL, Earl of (Scot.).—Dormant.

HARTISMERE, Baron.—Lord Henniker undoubtedly sat in the House of Lords on a writ in his father's name in the Barony of Hartismere. The sitting was subsequently expunged by order of the House of Lords. But the sitting under a wrong writ was equivalent to the sitting without a writ and a sitting as a Peer in Parliament means the existence of a Hereditary Peerage. Unless there is a writ and a patent limiting the Peerage to heirs male, the Peerage is one in fee heritable by the heir general. The expunging of the sitting was ultra vires and of no effect, and unquestionably a new Barony was created.

HASTANG, Barony (writ 1311).—Coheirs: the heir or coheirs of (1) Sir Humphrey Stafford, living 1506, and (2) Dame Joan Salisbury, living 1360.

HASTINGS, Barony (by writ Eng., 26 July, 1461).—In abeyance since the death of 11th Earl of Loudoun, 1920.

HEREFORD, Viscounty.—Under the peculiar terms of the patent of this dignity, now in the enjoyment of the Devereux family, there would seem every reason to hold that Viscount Hereford is a Peer of Ireland as well as of England.

HERTFORD, Earldom (1138).—Coheirs: Viscount Falmouth $\frac{1}{2}$; Lord Stafford $\frac{1}{8}$; (?) Princess Mary of Bavaria $\frac{1}{8}$.

HOLAND, Barony (1314).—Coheirs: The Earl of Abingdon $\frac{1}{2}$; Baroness Beaumont $\frac{1}{4}$; Hon. Ivy Stapleton $\frac{1}{4}$.

HOLAND, Barony (1353).—Coheirs: (?) Princess Mary of Bavaria $\frac{1}{4}$, and in another (the next line) $\frac{1}{8}$; Baroness Kinloss $\frac{1}{32}$; Caroline Adelaide Hadaway $\frac{1}{256}$; Alice Eva Hadaway $\frac{1}{256}$; Lady Caroline Grenville $\frac{1}{32}$; the heir $\frac{1}{32}$ of Anne, wife of Grey Brydges, 5th Lord Chandos; the Earl of Jersey $\frac{1}{64}$; the Duke of Sutherland $\frac{1}{64}$; Earl of Loudoun $\frac{1}{128}$; Lord Grey de Ruthyn $\frac{1}{128}$; Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski $\frac{1}{32}$; May Florence Kirwan $\frac{1}{32}$; Earl of Romney $\frac{1}{128}$; Earl of Loudoun $\frac{1}{32}$; Lord Grey de Ruthyn $\frac{1}{32}$; Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski $\frac{1}{64}$; May Florence Kirwan $\frac{1}{64}$; Earl of Romney (again) $\frac{1}{32}$; the heir of William Lowndes, of Chesham (d. 1905) $\frac{1}{16}$; William Selby-Lowndes, of Whaddon $\frac{1}{16}$; the heir $\frac{1}{8}$ of Margaret Neville, wife of Nicholas Pudsey; Mrs. Askew-Robertson $\frac{1}{64}$; Lady Ingilby $\frac{1}{64}$; Mrs. Margaret Frances Eyre $\frac{1}{32}$; the heir $\frac{1}{16}$ of Ursula, wife of Robert Widdrington.

HOLYROODHOUSE, Barony (Scot. 1607).—Dormant. The heir now is probably the heir of Margaret (d. 1792), wife of Colin Drummond, M.D., of Bristol.

HOWARD, Barony (writ 1470).—Coheirs: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{2}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{2}$.

HOWTH, Barony (Ireland, 1487).—Dormant on death of last Earl of Howth, 1909; an heir probably exists.

HUME of Berwick, Barony (it is doubtful whether this is an English or Scottish Barony. The patent (1605) with remainder to "his heirs" passed under the Great Seals of both England and Scotland).—If an English title, it is in abeyance between the Earl of Home $\frac{1}{2}$, and Lord Howard de Walden $\frac{1}{2}$. If a Scottish Peerage, it has devolved upon the Earl of Home.

HUNGERFORD, Barony (by writ Eng., 7 Jan. 1426).—In abeyance since the death of 11th Earl of Loudoun, 1920.

HUNTINGDON, Earldom (July 4, 1479).—Sole heir: The Duke of Beaufort, who is de jure Earl of Huntingdon.

HUSSEY, Barony (writ 1529).—Coheirs: the heir or coheirs of Molyneaux Disney, living 1630.

HYLTON, Barony.—Coheirs: Mrs. Custance $\frac{1}{4}$; Dudley John North $\frac{1}{4}$; Sir Hylton Ralph Brisco, Bt., $\frac{1}{2}$.

HYNDFORD, Earldom.—Dormant.

KELLS in Ossory, Lord (Ireland).—This title is somewhat of a mystery and difficult to establish as a Parliamentary Peerage. It has devolved (as heir general) upon Viscount Gormanston.

KENT, Earldom (1321).—Coheirs: Identical with the coheirs of the Barony of Holand (1353).

KERDESTON, Barony (1331–32).—Senior moiety under attainder; coheirs of junior moiety: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{4}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{4}$.

KINCLEVEN, Barony (Scot. 1628).—Possibly a Barony which has descended to Lord Willoughby de Broke.

KINDERTON, Baron.—A titular designation which has probably descended to Lord Vernon.

KIRKCUDBRIGHT, Barony (Scot. 1633).—Dormant.

KYME, Barony (1295).—Heir: The heir of Eleanor, wife of Henry Talboys, living circa 1400.

LANCASTER, Barony (1299).—This by various Acts of Parliament has probably devolved upon H.M. the King.

LANCASTER.—His Majesty is usually styled and considered to be Duke of Lancaster; but there is no Dukedom of Lancaster, and in reality he is "Sovereign Lord of the Duchy of Lancaster." Lancaster is as much a separate sovereignty as England, Scotland, or Ireland, although united to those Kingdoms. Inasmuch, however, as the Sovereign of a Duchy is usually termed a Duke, the description of H.M. as Duke of Lancaster is doubtless accurate.

LANDAFF, Earldom of (Irel. 1797).—These titles were supposed to have become extinct on the death without issue of Francis James Matthew, b. 1768, 2nd son of the 1st Earl whose claim to vote as 2nd Earl was admitted by the House of Lords in 1810, the 1st Earl m. 1764, having died 1806.

LATIMER of Braybrook, Barony (1299).—Now vested in the heir of Mary Griffin, by her husband, Thomas Markham, of Allerton or Ollerton, Notts.

LATIMER, Barony (writ 1299).—Heir: Lord Willoughby de Broke, who is de jure Lord Latimer.

LE BOTELER of Wemme, Barony.—Heirs: Identical with those of FERRERS OF WEMME, Barony.

LEICESTER, Earldom (1327).—An Earldom which has devolved upon H.M. the King.

LEICESTER, Earldom (1618).—In 1830 Paul Algernon Sydney claimed this Earldom, but as his claim to the estates had failed, the claim to the Earldom appears to have been dropped. The claim rests upon a question of legitimacy which at common law was apparently established.

LENNOX, Dukedom (Scot. 1581).—This was claimed in 1829 by the 4th Earl of Darnley as heir of line, which he was, but the claim does not appear to have been proceeded with. If well founded the title has devolved upon the Baroness Clifton of Leighton Bromswold.

LINDORES, Barony (Scot. circa 1600).—Dormant.

LISLE, Barony (writ 1357).—The heirs, if any, of this Barony depend upon the decision of various legal points, in the absence of which decision it is impossible to specify any particular persons.

LOVEL, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs (subject to attainder): The Earl of Abingdon $\frac{1}{2}$; Baroness Beaumont $\frac{1}{4}$; Hon. Ivy Stapleton $\frac{1}{4}$.

LUCY, Barony (1320).—Coheirs: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{1}{2}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{2}$.

LUMLEY, Barony (1384).—Heir: The heir of Rev. Robert Lumley Lloyd, D.D., who claimed the Barony in 1723 and died 1730. The decision was against him, but the subsequent Atholl decision has reversed this, and probably a claim to the Barony would now be successful.

LYLE, Barony (Scot.).—Heir: The heir of Sir Walter Montgomery Campbell, Bt., who petitioned for the Peerage 1790, but took no further steps.

MARCH, Earldom (1328).—Probably in abeyance, and if so the coheirs would be: (?)Princess Mary of Bavaria $\frac{1}{2}$; Baroness Kinloss $\frac{1}{12}$; Caroline Adelaide Hadaway $\frac{1}{24}$; Alice Eva Hadaway $\frac{1}{24}$; Lady Caroline Grenville $\frac{1}{12}$; the heir $\frac{1}{12}$ of Anne, wife of Grey Brydges, 5th Lord Chandos; the Earl of Jersey $\frac{1}{24}$; the Duke of Sutherland $\frac{1}{24}$; Earl of Loudoun $\frac{1}{24}$; Lord Grey de Ruthyn $\frac{1}{24}$; Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski $\frac{1}{96}$; May Florence Kirwan $\frac{1}{96}$; Earl of Romney $\frac{1}{48}$.

MARCHMONT, Earldom (Scot. 1697).—Dormant.—This title, which was granted, together with the Viscty. of Blasonberrie and the Barony of Polwarth, to Sir Patrick Home, of Polwarth, with ultimate remainder to heirs general, became dormant on the death of the 3rd Earl in 1794.

MARSHAL of IRELAND.—The hereditary office of Marshal of Ireland is vested in the heirs to the Baronies of Morley and Monteagle.

MARTIN, Barony (writ 1295).—On 21 May, 1914, the House of Lords decided that the barony was in abeyance amongst (a) Viscount Gage, (b) Col. H. Montgomery-Campbell, (c) the heir if any, of Mary Mackworth, and (d) Reginald Joseph Weld.

MAULEY, or DE MAULEY (writ 1295).—Coheirs: The heir $\frac{1}{2}$ of Dorothy Bigot, by her husband, Roger Radcliffe, of Mulgrave Castle; Lord de Mauley $\frac{1}{2}$.

MAYO, Viscount (Irel. 1627).—Dormant.

MENTEITH, Earldom (Scot.).—Claimed by Robert Barclay-Allardice, who has lodged a petition therefore as heir of line. His claim is disputed by various people claiming as heirs male.

MILLTOWN, Earldom (Irel.).—Dormant since 1891.

MOELS, Barony (writ 1299).—Coheirs: The senior moiety is divided as to one (the senior) half amongst the coheirs of the junior moiety, and as to the other half amongst the coheirs to the Barony of Dinham, the junior moiety is amongst the Earl of Loudoun, Lord Grey de Ruthyn, Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski, May Florence Kirwan, and the Earl of Romney.

MOHUN, Barony (1299).—Coheirs: The heir $\frac{1}{2}$ of Anne, wife of Grey Brydges, 5th Lord Chandos; the Earl of Jersey $\frac{1}{8}$; the Duke of Sutherland $\frac{1}{8}$; the Earl of Loudoun $\frac{1}{12}$; Lord Grey de Ruthyn $\frac{1}{12}$; Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski $\frac{1}{24}$; May Florence Kirwan $\frac{1}{24}$; the Earl of Romney $\frac{1}{12}$.

MONMOUTH, Dukedom (1663).—Heir (subject to attainder): the Duke of Buccleuch.

MONTAGU, Viscounty (1554).—It is quite likely that his Peerage is only dormant. It has been frequently claimed, and many people of the name of Browne consider themselves heirs.

MONTEAGLE, Barony (writ 1514).—Coheirs: Identical with those of Morley.

MONTHERMER and MONTAGU, Baronies.—Coheirs: Earl of Loudoun $\frac{1}{2}$; Lord Grey de Ruthyn $\frac{1}{4}$; Hyacinth Bodenham-Lubienski $\frac{1}{16}$; May Florence Kirwan $\frac{1}{16}$; the Earl of Romney $\frac{1}{8}$; William Lowndes of Chesham $\frac{1}{4}$; William Selby-Lowndes $\frac{1}{4}$.

MORDAUNT, Barony (writ ——).—Coheirs: The Duke of Richmond and Gordon $\frac{1}{5}$; Mrs. Gilbert Spencer-Smith, of Maidenstone, Burlesdon, Hants, $\frac{1}{10}$; Susan, Lady Lennox $\frac{1}{10}$; the Duke of Manchester $\frac{1}{5}$; Hon. James R. Neville Stopford $\frac{1}{10}$; Hon. Mrs. Joynes $\frac{1}{30}$; Earl of St. Germans $\frac{1}{15}$; Alexander George Gordon Ross $\frac{1}{15}$; Algernon Wriothesley Russell $\frac{1}{5}$.

MORDINGTON, Barony (Scot.).—This has probably devolved upon Lord Sempill.

MORLEY, Barony.—It is not certain whether all the remaining lines are extinct, but they are believed to be so, and that the coheirs are Hon. Mrs. Oldfield $\frac{1}{12}$; the Duke of Leeds $\frac{1}{2}$; Hon. Blanche Caroline Pitt-Rivers $\frac{1}{2}$; the heir $\frac{1}{12}$ of Hon. Mrs. Eliot; Hon. Mrs. Page-Roberts $\frac{1}{12}$; Hon. Gertrude Emily Pitt-Rivers $\frac{1}{12}$; George Lane-Fox $\frac{1}{2}$.

MORTIMER, Barony (1295).—Coheirs: Identical with those to the Earldom of March.

NITHSDALE, Earldom (Scot.).—The heir to this Peerage is unknown. It is, however, under attainder.

NORFOLK, Earldom of (1312).—Coheirs: (senior) Lord Mowbray and Stourton; (junior) Lady Furnivall.

NOTTINGHAM, Earldom of (1377).—Under a literal interpretation of the terms of the patent the coheirs are: Lord Mowbray and Stourton $\frac{3}{4}$; Lady Furnivall $\frac{1}{4}$.

NUGENT, of Riverston, Barony (Irel. 3 April, 1689).—A Barony which has devolved upon the Earl of Westmeath.

OGLE, Barony (writ 1461).—Coheirs: Lord Howard de Walden $\frac{1}{3}$; Lord de Clifford $\frac{1}{3}$; Hugh Sidney Marsham-Townshend $\frac{1}{36}$; the Earl of Albemarle $\frac{1}{36}$; the Marquess of Salisbury $\frac{1}{12}$; John Henry Leveson-Gower, of Bell Hill, $\frac{1}{12}$; the heir $\frac{1}{12}$ of Isabella, wife of 3rd Earl of Egmont; the heir $\frac{1}{6}$ of Arabella, wife of Jonathan Cope, of Brewerne Abbey; R. C. Duncombe Shafto, of Whitworth Park $\frac{1}{6}$.

OXFORD, Earldom (1142).—Possibly in abeyance between $\frac{1}{2}$ the coheirs of the Barony of Latimer (prior to the determination of the abeyance) in like proportion, and $\frac{1}{2}$ amongst the heirs of Elizabeth, wife of Sir Anthony Wingfield, K.G. The Petition of the Duke of Atholl and F. B. T. M. Coutts was referred to the Committee for Privileges of the House of Lords, 16 May, 1912, and heard before the Committee, December, 1912.

OXFURD, Viscounty (Scot.).—Dormant. Heir male is Sir George Makgill, Bt.

PEMBROKE, Earldom (1138).—This Earldom being Palatine is hardly likely ever to be revived, but there can be no doubt it is now in abeyance. The coheirs are as to one-third the same as the heirs of the Earldom of Athol; as to the next third, Lord Mowbray and Stourton, and as to the last third Lady Furnivall.

PEMBROKE, Earldom (Sept. 8, 1468).—Sole heir: The Duke of Beaufort, who is de jure Earl of Pembroke.

POWER and COROGHMORE, Barony (Irel.).—A Peerage now probably vested in the (Papal Count) E. de Poher de la Poer, of Gurteen, who has lodged a claim therefor.

POWIS, Barony (creat. by letters patent to heirs general 5 Edward I.).—Coheirs: Edward Pemberton Salusbury, of Bachygraig, nr. St. Asaph, Flint $\frac{1}{4}$; the coheirs jointly $\frac{1}{4}$ of the Rev. Charles Leicester, rector of Westbury (d. 1858); Rev. Richard H. Cholmondeley, late of Condover, $\frac{1}{4}$; Sir Peter Leicester, Bt., $\frac{1}{4}$; W. S. Childe Pemberton, of Millichope, $\frac{1}{4}$. [This Barony is variously described as Cherleton, Cherleton de Powys, and Grey de Powys, but as it originated earlier than its devolution upon the Cherleton family, there can be no question that the Peerage originally was a Barony of Powys, and the addition of the words "de Powys" to the Cherleton writs and to the Grey writs becomes intelligible as proof that they were all issued in the same Barony.]

ROCHFORT, Barony (1495).—Coheirs: The heir $\frac{1}{2}$ of Anne, wife of Sir James St. Leger.

ROSCOMMON, Earldom (Ireland).—This Peerage, which has been the subject of various claims, is believed to be dormant.

ROSS, Barony (Scot. 1502).—Possibly dormant and not extinct.

RUSSBOROUGH, Viscounty and Barony (Irel.).—Dormant since 1891.

BRIEF VIEW OF TITULAR DISTINCTIONS AND TERMS RELATING TO RANKS

IN the following pages is a summary of description, in alphabetical order, of the various ranks which confer titles upon individuals; together with a brief account of a few terms which frequently occur in the personal memoirs of each possessor of these dignities:—

ABEYANCE.—When the possessor of a barony which had been created by writ of summons, dies without issue male, his daughters become his "co-heirs," and the barony falls into "abeyance" amongst them. In this condition it will remain—unenjoyed by any of them, yet undestroyed—until death or the favour of the Crown "terminates the abeyance." By the death of all the daughters except one, and the extinction of any direct descendants of these daughters, the abeyance is terminated in favour of the survivor, and she becomes a Baroness in her own right. By the favour of the Crown, on the other hand, any co-heir may be selected, and the barony revived in his or her person, the co-heir so selected being summoned by writ, and taking precedence as if sole heir.

ARCHBISHOPS.—The highest dignity in the Church is that of "metropolitan prelate" or archbishop. He exercises control over Bishops; and the limit of his archiepiscopal jurisdiction is called "a province," of which there are two in England (Canterbury and York), and have been hitherto two in Ireland (Dublin and Armagh). But in addition to these functions, he has the actual care of a diocese, in which he performs all the duties of a suffragan prelate, owing obedience, however, only to the Crown and the Parliament. The Archbishop of Canterbury can issue licences for marriages to be solemnized at any time or place; and he has the power of granting degrees like those of a University.

ATTAINDER.—A capital conviction for treason or felony, when judgment has actually been pronounced, renders a man "attaint, attinctus." His dignities are not only destroyed in his own person, but their further descent arrested. The obstruction of an attaint may be removed by Parliament reversing judgment; and the dignity is thereby revived in precisely the same condition as if it never had been attainted.

BARON.—This, though now the lowest rank in the peerage, is the most ancient. It may be derived from a writ of summons or from letters patent. The former, if followed by an actual sitting in the House of Lords, constitutes a title heritable by heirs male and female of the body of the person summoned. The latter always perscribes the course of descent in express words. Both these kinds of Baronies are in existence; but formerly another class drew their honours from the possession of certain lands. These "Baronies by tenure" are obsolete, though many heirs of such titles exist, possessing baronies by writ or patent.

BARONETS.—This Order of titled persons was founded in England by James I, 1611; in Ireland, to promote the plantation of Ulster, by the same King, 1619; and in Scotland, for the advancement of Nova Scotia by Charles I, 1625. It owes its birth to the necessities of James, who sought to recruit his finances by the condition annexed to the title of paying into the Exchequer about £1095, being ostensibly three years' pay of thirty soldiers at 8*d.* a day per man. The institution of the Order in Scotland was connected with a scheme for colonizing Nova Scotia, and down to 1638 the patents contained a grant of lands in that colony, though it had before that date passed into the possession of the French. The dignity in modern times has always been created by patent, in which the course of its descent is prescribed—usually to the heir male of the body of the first grantee. Many patents, previous to 1827, contained a clause, under which the eldest son of a Baronet may claim Knighthood on coming of age. The rank of Baronet is a "necessary" addition to the name in all cases, and has to be written in full in official signatures. The abbreviation "Bt." (not "bart.") is permissible in ordinary use.

BISHOP.—Every Bishop must have been in priest's orders, must be at least thirty years of age, must be born in lawful wedlock, and must be recommended by the Crown to the dean and chapter by whom he is elected. Each new Bishop is "consecrated;" but when a prelate is removed from one see to another the process is called "translation." The majority of the Bishops have no seats in the House of Lords, being Prelates of Scotland or Ireland, or Colonial or Missionary Bishops. Of the English and Welsh Prelates, the two Archbishops, the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, and 21 of the remaining 30 Bishops, sit as spiritual peers, the eight junior Bishops being excluded. The Bishop of Sodor and Man has a seat but no vote.

COUNTESS.—The wife of an Earl, or the female possessor of a peerage of that rank in her own right by descent or by creation.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.—This Order was instituted by Royal Warrant dated 6th September, 1886, for the purpose of adequately rewarding the distinguished services of commissioned officers of the Naval and Military services who have been honourably mentioned in despatches. It is to consist of the Sovereign and Companions.

DORMANT.—A title which is vested de jure, but is not claimed or assumed, or the right to which cannot be established, is styled dormant. Titles, not being within the statute of limitations, can be claimed at any distance of time and cannot be lost by disuse.

DUKE.—This, the highest rank in the British peerage, dates its origin from the 11th of Edward III, in which year that King created his eldest son a Duke; previously the Kings of England had themselves been styled "Dukes" of Normandy, and were naturally restrained from conferring an equal titular designation upon any subject; but Edward III claimed to be "King of France," and he was the first to create an English Duke. This Order of nobility disappeared wholly in 1572 by the extinction of the heirs of all upon whom it had been conferred, or by the attainder of the remaining possessors of the title; the first peer subsequently raised to this rank was Ludovic Stuart, Duke of Richmond, 17th May, 1623. There are at present only two Dukedoms in Ireland, those of Leinster and Abercorn, besides the Royal Dukedom of Connaught.

EARL.—The title of Earl may be traced to the Saxon earldorman, or the Danish jarl; but its constitution as a dignity is, of course, subsequent in date to the Norman Conquest, when the designation Comes, Count, or Earl, took a prominent place in the peerage. Till the reign of Henry III this dignity, together with that of Baron, wholly constituted the nobility of the realm; and previous to that period earldoms seem in several instances to have been enjoyed, like baronies, as a consequence of the tenure of certain lands. Originally the title was derived from the name of a county, the government of which was attached to the honour; but in modern times the dignity and the duty have long been divided, and towns, villages, and country seats occasionally furnish the name of an Earl.

IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.—Instituted by King Edward on his Coronation, 1902, for members of the Civil Service of the Empire, to be conferred after Long and Meritorious Service.

KNIGHT BACHELOR.—This rank is far more ancient than any of the fraternities existing under the name of Orders. By the mere imposition of the Sovereign's sword on the shoulder, accompanied with the words, "Arise, Sir——," its privileges are conferred; and even the members of the Orders of Knighthood must all now receive this accolade before they can assume the designation of "Sir." When residence abroad prevents the personal reception of this honour, it has of late become the practice to issue letters patent granting the "style, title, and dignity of a knight" to the favoured individual. The prefix of "Sir" is exclusively English as appertaining to Knighthood, and is not necessarily borne by any Foreign knight. In Ireland the Lord-Lieutenant can confer the honour of Knighthood. The origin of the designation Knight Bachelor is plausibly derived by some authors from the words bas chevalier, indicating the superiority of the class of Knights Banneret who were created under the Royal standard displayed in open war.

KNIGHTS OF THE MOST HONOURABLE ORDER OF THE BATH.—The practice of creating Knights with various ceremonies, of which bathing was one, is undoubtedly a custom of considerable antiquity; but the institution which now bears the name cannot be traced as a State Order, regulated by statutes and ordinances, beyond the year 1725. The close of the war led to a remodelling of its constitution in 1815, and the long continuance of peace produced an analogous result in 1847. The new statutes published in the latter year introduced the means of extensively rewarding civil services, and, by abolishing a mass of absurd or conflicting ordinances, reduced the whole to a consistent and rational institution. It contains three classes, viz. Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commander, and Companions. The latter are not entitled to the prefix of "Sir," but the two former always receive the accolade. These three classes are each subdivided into three minor divisions, viz. Military, Civil, and Honorary. Services in the Navy or Army are rewarded by the first of these minor divisions; services in diplomacy, on the bench, in high official stations, &c., are acknowledged by the second; services rendered by foreign princes or officers are rewarded by the third.

LORDS OF SESSION.—In England the judges are usually knighted, and in Ireland they are frequently sworn in privy counsellors, but in Scotland a judge of the Court of Session is styled "Lord," with the prefix "Honourable." The title of Lord is prefixed either to the name—of his estate or to his patronymic: of the former practice Lord Ardwall affords an instance—of the latter Lord Guthrie is an example. In the case of the heads of the court, however, the Lord Justice General and the Lord Justice Clerk, the title is not officially used, except during the ceremony of first taking seat upon the bench. By Royal Warrant of Feb. 3, 1905, Lords of Session are permitted to retain their title on retirement, and their wives are also granted the title of "Lady," to be retained during widowhood.

LORDS SPIRITUAL.—The Bishops collectively in their legislative capacities are called Lords Spiritual, as the other members of the House of Peers are called Lords Temporal.

MARQUESS.—This title was unknown in England till Richard II created a Marquess of Dublin. It is said to derive its origin from the word Marchio, Lord Marcher, whose duty it was to guard the Welsh and Scottish frontiers, which were called Marches. Till of late years it occurred very sparingly in the lists of Peers and even at present it furnishes the smallest number of any rank in the nobility.

ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA was instituted to commemorate the assumption by Queen Victoria of the title of Empress of India. To consist of the Sovereign, Princesses of the Royal and Imperial House, the wives or other female relatives of Indian princes, and of other Indian ladies the Sovereign may think fit; and also of the wives or other female relatives of any of the persons who have held, now hold, or may hereafter hold the offices of Viceroy of India and Governor-General of India, Governor of Madras or Bombay, or of Principal Secretary of State for India.

MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.—The year 1348 is that usually assigned as the date of the institution of this fraternity. Popular tradition attributes its foundation to the accident of a lady's garter being picked up by Edward III at a court festival, when he checked the mirth of bystanders by the exclamation Honi soit qui mal y pense, and permanently converted a trivial accident into a source of honour and distinction by founding a fraternity of Knights with that motto and the decoration of an embroidered garter. It consists of the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, twenty-five Knights Companions, and such lineal descendants of George II as may be elected extra Knights.

ORDER OF THE GUELPHS OF HANOVER.—This, though no longer a British fraternity enjoyed that distinction for nearly a quarter of a century, and Englishmen have more largely participated in its honours than the natives of Hanover. It was founded by George IV in 1815, and consists of three classes—Knights Grand Cross Knights Commander, and Knights; the latter, however, in this country, have no other attribute of Knighthood than the name, and correspond exactly to the Cavalieri or Companions of other Orders; but in Hanover they enjoy several privileges.

THE ORDER OF THE HOSPITAL OF ST. JOHN OF JERUSALEM, incorporated by Royal Charter, 1888, under the title of the "Grand Priory of the Order of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England," is the English Langue or branch of the celebrated Order of the Knights of St. John, established at Jerusalem at the time of the 1st Crusade and was founded at Clerkenwell about 1100 A.D. It was suppressed by Elizabeth, and not revived until after the dispersal of the Order on the capture of Malta by Buonaparte. The head of the fraternity is the Sovereign, and the various grades are a Grand Prior, a Sub-Prior, a titular Bailiff of Eagle, Honorary Bailiffs, Commanders, Knights and Ladies of Justice, Knights and Ladies of Grace, Esquires, and Serving Brothers and Sisters. The Chancery of the Order is in the gateway of the original Priory in Clerkenwell, which is still standing.

Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire.—This Order was instituted by the Queen on the 1st of January, 1878, to commemorate the event of the proclamation of Her Majesty's style and title of Empress of India in the Indian Dominions and for the reward of important and useful services rendered to the Indian Empire. It was enlarged in 1886, again in 1887, on the occasion of the first Jubilee, and again in 1911, and now consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master (Viceroy for the time being), Knights Grand Commanders (not exceeding 40), Knights Commanders (not exceeding 120), and Companions (nominations not to exceed 40 in any successive year); persons who by their services, official or other, to the Empire in India, and such distinguished representatives of Eastern Potentates as His Majesty may think fit and eligible for appointment. The Councillors for and in the Indian Empire are ex officio and for life Companions of the Order.

Order of Merit.—Instituted by King Edward, on his Coronation, 1902, and consisting of one class of members, subjects of the Crown, who have rendered exceptionally meritorious service in the Navy and Army or towards the advancement of Art, Literature, and Science, the number not to exceed twenty-four.

Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George.—This Order was established by letters patent in 1818, and enlarged in 1832 and 1839 for the purpose of affording an appropriate medium by which marks of royal favour might be conferred upon the natives of Malta and the Ionian Islands, as well as upon British subjects whose services may be connected with these dependencies of the Crown. It consists of three classes—Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commander, and Companions (substituted for Cavalieri in 1851). In 1869 the Queen was pleased to sanction such a modification of the statutes of this Order, and such an enlargement of its numbers as to render it available as a reward for distinguished merit or service in any of the colonial possessions of the Empire. In 1879 and 1887 this Order of Knighthood was still further enlarged and new statutes issued, and the number of members is now not to exceed 100 G.C.M.G.; 300 K.C.M.G.; and 600 C.M.G., inclusive of those assignable for foreign services, and honorary members," consisting of foreign princes, &c.

Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick.—This fraternity of Knights was instituted in 1783 as a national Order for Ireland, corresponding to the Thistle in Scotland and the Garter in England. The Lord-Lieutenant, Lords deputy, or Lords justices were appointed ex officio Grand Masters, and the Order consists of twenty-two Knights, in addition to which all persons who have held the office of Lord-Lieutenant are authorized to retain the insignia of the Order after they have retired from the government of Ireland.

Most Exalted Order of the Star of India.—This Order was instituted by Queen Victoria in 1861, and enlarged in 1866, 1876, and 1911 for the express purpose of rendering high honour to conspicuous loyalty and merit in the princes, chiefs and people of her Indian Empire. The Order consists of the Sovereign, a Grand Master (the Viceroy of India), forty-four Knights Grand Commanders; one hundred Knights Commanders, and two hundred Companions, exclusive of extra and honorary members.

Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.—Authorities are divided as to the period to which the origin of this Order may be traced; some going as far back as Achaius, King of the Scots, and others dating its establishment from a warrant issued by James VII of Scotland and II of England in 1687. The number of Knights is sixteen.

Privy Counsellor.—The Privy Council includes the responsible ministers of the Crown, a few of the judges, some diplomatists, and many peers and commoners distinguished in the public service. In number it is unlimited. Under its authority many acts are done, but the measures which pass under its name chiefly proceed from its own sub-committees—the Cabinet, the Judicial Committee, the Board of Trade, &c. Privy Counsellors enjoy the title of Right Honourable, and are ex officio entitled to become magistrates in every county without being required to possess landed qualification. They also possess the privilege of the entrée at drawing rooms, levees, state balls, &c.

Royal Victorian Order.—This was created in 1896, for bestowal by the Sovereign upon those subjects whose personal services it might be desired to recognize, and any foreign princes and persons upon whom the Sovereign may think fit to confer it. It consists of five classes—Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commander, Commanders, and members of the fourth and fifth classes, who take precedence as indicated on pages 21 and 22. The Royal Victorian Chain is a decoration founded by King Edward VII in 1902, to be bestowed on special occasions.

Viscount.—This is the most modern of all the ranks in the Peerage. It was introduced into England in 1440, and has always been conferred by letters patent. The word vice-comes had long been used to designate the sheriff of a county, and the French modification of that term, viscount, was adopted when a titular dignity was created, to which, however, no shadow of official trust was assigned. It has never been largely conferred, and as a chief title does not at present constitute one-twentieth of the English peerage; in Ireland, however, it bears a much larger proportion to the whole body, being about one-fifth.

FORMAL MODES OF ADDRESSING LETTERS TO PERSONS OF TITLE

BEFORE the reader can ascertain the correct mode of addressing any person of title, it is first necessary that he should learn the precise rank of the individual, as well as the hereditary personal or official distinctions by which that rank is often modified. Information of this kind he will find under each person's name in Parts I. and II. of this volume; and then, by referring to the following series of statements (in which the ranks, &c., are alphabetically arranged), he can apply the general rule to the individual instance, and find the correct mode of addressing letters to every member of the titled classes.

ARCHBISHOP.—Letters are addressed "His Grace the Lord Archbishop of——," and commence with the words "My Lord Archbishop"; but more formal documents describe the Archbishop of Canterbury as "The Most Reverend Father in God, Randall Thomas Davidson, by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of Canterbury." Other archbishops, like bishops, are styled "by Divine permission." In letters and conversation an archbishop is not addressed as "Your Lordship," but as "Your Grace." The Archbishop of Armagh is usually addressed in Ireland as "His Grace the Lord Primate of Ireland." One Irish bishop, viz., Meath, which was anciently an archiepiscopal see, continues to enjoy one of the honorary distinctions of an archbishop, and to be styled "Most Reverend."

ARCHBISHOPS' WIVES enjoy no title or precedence whatever in right of their husbands' official rank, and are addressed as "Mrs." simply.

BARON.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable Lord——," and commence with the words "My Lord." When personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

BARON'S DAUGHTER.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Mary——," or if married, "The Honourable Mrs.——," and commence with the word "Madam."

BARON'S SON.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable James——," or "The Honourable William——," as the case may be, and commence with the word "Sir."

BARON'S SON'S WIFE.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Mrs.——," and commence with the word "Madam."

BARON'S WIFE and BARONESS in her own right.—Letters are, according to strict formality, addressed as "The Right Honourable Lady——"; but in the majority of instances the form adopted is "The Lady——." The commencement of the letter is "Madam," but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

BARONETS.—Letters are addressed "Sir John ——, Baronet," or "Sir William——, Baronet," as the case may be, and commence with the word "Sir."

BARONETS' WIVES.—Letters are addressed "Lady——," without any Christian name (unless she be the daughter of an earl, marquess, or duke), and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, a baronet's wife is styled "Your Ladyship."

BISHOPS.—Letters are usually addressed "The Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of——," and commence with the words "My Lord"; but frequently the prefix of "Right Reverend" is omitted. In more formal documents the style is "The Right Reverend Father in God, William (or George, &c., as the case may be), by Divine permission Lord Bishop of ——". Bishops suffragan are by custom entitled to the same style as if they were territorial Bishops. The bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland are correctly addressed by their own names, thus "The Right Rev. Bishop Dowden"; and the commencement is not "My Lord," but "Right Reverend Sir." Colonial bishops are addressed like those of England. Colonial Metropolitans are addressed like archbishops as Most Rev.

BISHOP'S WIVES.—Like Archbishops' Wives.

COUNTESS.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Countess of——," or less formally "The Countess of——," and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

DUCHESS.—Letters are addressed "Her Grace the Duchess of——," and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Grace."

DUKE.—Letters are addressed "His Grace the Duke of——," and commence with the words "My Lord Duke"; when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Grace."

DUKE'S DAUGHTER.—Letters are addressed "The Lady Mary——," or "The Lady Margaret ——" (as the case may be). They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship." If a duke's daughter marries a commoner, it only changes her surname.

DUKE'S ELDEST SON.—He uses the second title of his father by courtesy, and his letters are addressed precisely as if he enjoyed a marquessate or earldom, as the case may be (although in law he is, like all peers' sons, only an esquire). Vide Marquess, Earl, &c.

DUKE'S YOUNGER SON.—Letters are addressed usually as "The Lord William——," or "The Lord John——." They commence with the words "My Lord," and when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

DUKE'S YOUNGER SON'S WIFE.—Letters are addressed (unless when the wife is of superior rank to the husband) "The Lady William——," and "The Lady John——." They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

EARL.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Earl of——," or less formally "The Earl of——." They commence with "My Lord," and when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

EARL'S DAUGHTER.—Like Duke's Daughter

EARL'S ELDEST SON.—Letters are addressed as if he enjoyed by right the title which he bears by courtesy.

EARL'S YOUNGER SON.—Though an Earl's daughters have the same prefix as those of a Duke, yet the sons of an Earl are only "Honourables." Letters are addressed like those to barons' sons.

EARL'S YOUNGER SON'S WIFE.—Like baron's son's wife, unless when of superior rank to her husband.

EARL'S WIFE.—Countess.

JUDGES.—Letters to the Lords Justices of Appeal, who are invariably made Privy Counsellors, are addressed "The Right Hon. Lord Justice——," or "The Right Hon. Sir A. B.," and letters to the Justices of the High Court are addressed "The Hon. Sir A. B.," or "The Hon. Mr. Justice——." Official letters commence "My Lord," but in ordinary correspondence "Sir" is commonly used. If a Lord Justice is a peer, or if a Judge is a peer or privy counsellor, he should be addressed accordingly. (For Scottish Judges, see LORD OF SESSION.)

KING.—Letters are addressed to "The King's Most Excellent Majesty," and commence with the word "Sire"; when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Majesty." Another form of address frequently adopted, is a mixture of the first and third persons thus, "Mr. Balfour presents his duty to your Majesty."

KNIGHT BACHELOR.—Letters are addressed "Sir John——," or "Sir William——" (as the case may be), without the addition of "Knight." They commence with the word "Sir." More formal documents require the affix of "Knight."

KNIGHT OF THE GARTER.—K.G. is placed after the name, in addition to any other distinction which the individual may enjoy.

KNIGHT OF ST. PATRICK.—K.P. is used like K.G. for Knight of the Garter.

KNIGHT OF THE THISTLE.—K.T. is used like K.G. for Knight of the Garter.

KNIGHT OF THE BATH.—Like Knight Bachelor but with the addition of the letters G.C.B. or K.C.B. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE STAR OF INDIA.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of the letters G.C.S.I. or K.C.S.I. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.C.M.G. or K.C.M.G. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.C.I.E. or K.C.I.E. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.C.V.O. or K.C.V.O. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.—Like Knight Bachelor, but with the addition of G.B.E. or K.B.E. after the surname, according to the individual case.

KNIGHT'S WIFE.—Letters to the wife of a Knight of the Bath, Star of India, St. Michael and St. George, Indian Empire, Victorian Order, and of the order of the British Empire, as well as to the wife of a Knight Bachelor, are addressed "Lady——," and commence with the word "Madam"; but when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

LORD ADVOCATE.—Letters are addressed with the prefix of "Right Honourable," and commence with the word "Sir," not "My Lord."

LORD LIEUTENANT OF IRELAND.—Letters are addressed "His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant," and commence according to the hereditary rank of the individual, "My Lord Marquess," "My Lord," &c. Vide each rank. If however he happens to be a duke, he is not addressed as "His Excellency," but as "His Grace the Lord Lieutenant."

LORD MAYOR.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor," and commence with the words "My Lord." In England there are lord mayors of London, York, Manchester, Liverpool, Birmingham, Leeds, Bradford, Sheffield, Newcastle, Bristol, and Norwich; in Wales, of Cardiff; and in Ireland of Dublin, Belfast and Cork. In 1902 the title was conferred on the Mayors of Sydney and Melbourne.

LORD OF SESSION.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Lord Kyllachy," &c. (as the case may be), and commence with the words "My Lord." The two heads of the Court of Session are addressed by their ordinary name and titles (with the prefix of Honourable failing any other title), followed by "Lord Justice General," or "Lord Justice Clerk," as the case may be.

MAIDS OF HONOUR.—Letters are addressed "The Honourable Miss——," and commence with the word "Madam."

MARCHIONESS.—Letters are addressed "The Most Honourable the Marchioness of ——," and commence with the word "Madam"; when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Ladyship."

MARQUESS.—Letters are addressed "The Most Honourable the Marquess of——," not "The Most Noble." They commence "My Lord Marquess"; when personally addressed, he is styled "My Lord" simply; and when incidentally referred to, "Your Lordship."

MARQUESS' DAUGHTER.—Like Duke's daughter, which see.

MARQUESS' ELDEST SON.—Letters are addressed as if he enjoyed by right the title which he bears by courtesy.

MARQUESS' YOUNGER SON.—Like a Duke's younger son.

MARQUESS' YOUNGER SON'S WIFE.—Like a Duke's younger son's wife.

MAYORS.—Letters are addressed "The Right Worshipful the Mayor of——," and commence with the word "Sir." This form is, however, seldom adopted, except in formal petitions, or official letters referring solely to corporate business. Letters are more usually addressed "The Mayor of——" simply.

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.—The letters M.P. are added after the surname, in addition to any other distinction which the individual may enjoy.

MILITARY OFFICER.—The military rank is always prefixed to any other title which the individual may possess, thus, "Major-General Sir Henry——, K.C.B." "Colonel the Earl of Longford," &c.

NAVAL OFFICER.—The same rule prevails here as with military officers.

PRINCE.—Letters are addressed "His Royal Highness Prince——," or "His Royal Highness the Duke of——," when a prince is also a duke. They commence with the word "Sir," and not "My Lord Duke"; when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Royal Highness."

PRINCESS.—Letters are addressed "Her Royal Highness the Princess——," or "Her Royal Highness the Duchess of——" (as the case may be). They commence with the word "Madam," and when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Royal Highness."

PRINCE'S WIFE.—Like a princess by birth, which see.

PRIVY COUNSELLOR.—Letters are addressed with the prefix of "Right Honourable," whatever may be the rank which the individual otherwise enjoys, as "The Right Hon. Sir John—— Bt.," "The Right Hon. John——, M.P.," but in no other respect does the office confer any title.

PRIVY COUNSELLORS' WIVES.—These enjoy no title or precedence whatever in right of their husband's seat at the council board.

QUEEN.—Letters to Her present Majesty are addressed "Her Most Excellent Majesty Queen Mary," and commence with the word "Madam"; when personally referred to, she is styled "Your Majesty."

VISCOUNT.—Letters are addressed "The Right Honourable Lord Viscount——," or less formally "The Viscount——." They commence with the words "My Lord," and when personally referred to, he is styled "Your Lordship."

53, COLEMAN STREET, E.C.

THIS Association, originally known as "The Honourable Society of the Baronetage," was formed at a Meeting to which the whole of the Baronetage were invited, on January 26, 1898: the Society was dissolved on February 20, 1903, and re-constituted under its present title.

The Standing Council was established as an organization of a permanent character to deal with all affairs connected with the hereditary Degree, and afford to the members thereof means of intercommunication. Its principal objects are:—

1. To obtain the preparation of an accurate Roll of the Baronetage, and to see that the same is properly kept.
2. To take such action in the interests of the Baronetage, or of any individual Baronet, and of the privileges of Baronets and members of their families as from time to time may be decided.

The Standing Council consists of—

(a) Members: who must be persons, either Peers or Baronets, in actual lawful possession of a Baronetcy, or the Wives of such persons, or the Widows of persons who have been in lawful possession of a Baronetcy.

(b) Associates: who must be heirs apparent or presumptive to any lawful Baronetcy, or the Sons and Daughters of a lawful Baronet, or honorary officers of the Council for the time being.

Since the formation of the Standing Council and its predecessor, it has been successful in obtaining the restoration of several privileges which, owing partly to the apathy of the members of the Degree for many generations past, and probably owing to the fact that since the erection of the Degree in 1611 there has not been any central office or committee representing the Degree, have been allowed to lapse. Although it had been the practice to invite representatives of the Baronetage to the coronations of the Kings and Queens of England, invitations were not extended to the Baronetage for the coronations of George IV, William IV, and Victoria; but owing to the energetic representations made by the Executive Committee of the Honourable Society of the Baronetage, and its successor the Standing Council, invitations to the Coronation of King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra, and to the Coronation of King George V and Queen Mary, were issued to representative Baronets of the five creations, namely Baronets of England, of Ireland, of Scotland, of Great Britain, and of the United Kingdom, and to their wives.

In a similar way, invitations were issued to the subsequent Coronation Services at St. Paul's Cathedral, and to attend the funeral of King Edward VII at St. George's Chapel, Windsor.

For many years no difference was made in the lists recording Baronets and Knights who attended the Drawing-Rooms and Levees held during the reign of Queen Victoria, but owing to the representations of the Standing Council, a separate list of Baronets attending Courts and Levees is now issued from the Lord Chamberlain's Office.

A considerable time before the formation of the Standing Council and its predecessor, invitations to Court were issued to many persons describing them as Baronets merely on their own personal descriptions as such, and persons were gazetted even to commissions in the Army and Navy, and to appointments in the Civil Service, as Baronets without any proof having been required as to their right to so designate themselves.

As the result of a Petition to King Edward VII, a Committee, presided over by the Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, was appointed November 3, 1905, by Mr. Akers-Douglas (now Lord Chilston), then Home Secretary, to inquire whether any, and if so what steps should be taken to safeguard the status of the Baronetage. The Committee took evidence from Garter, Lyon, and Ulster Kings of Arms, from baronets and other representatives of the Standing Council of the Baronetage, including Admiral Sir Lambton Loraine, Baronet, the then Chairman of the Executive Committee of this Association, and Mr. Francis W. Pixley, F.S.A., Author of the History of the Baronetage, the Registrar, as well as from Baronets who desired to be heard independently, and from others interested in or having a special acquaintance with the matters referred to. This Committee issued its Report on December 12, 1906, and amongst other suggestions recommended the formation of a Roll to be in the custody of an Official of the Home Office, and on February 8, 1910, a Royal Warrant was issued under the late King's Sign Manual, prescribing that an Official Roll of Baronets should be prepared, in consultation with the Garter, Lyon, and Ulster Kings of Arms, and kept in the Home Office, and that no person whose name is not entered therein shall be received as a Baronet, or be addressed or mentioned by that title in any Civil or Military Commission, Letters Patent, or other official document.

Subsequently Sir W. P. Byrne, K.C.V.O., Assistant Under Secretary Home Office, was appointed Registrar of the Baronetage and was succeeded by Mr. Harry Butler Simpson, C.B., the present Registrar. Mr. R. F. Reynard, I.S.O., also of the Home Office, is Deputy Registrar.

The preparation of the draft of the first Roll was entrusted to Mr. F. W. Pixley, and this draft Roll was, in 1910, lodged with the Secretary of State for the Home Department. After being under the consideration of the Home Office Officials in consultation with the three Kings of Arms (Garter, Lyon, or Ulster), according to their respective heraldic jurisdiction, in regard to the validity of the Baronetcies named therein for upwards of three years the first Roll was issued as a supplement to the London Gazette of February 20, 1914, on February 23.

The Royal Warrant also prescribed that the Roll shall be revised and corrected from time to time and shall be submitted to the reigning Monarch once in each year, and shall be published annually in the London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Gazettes and placed on sale.

Members of the Privy Council are appointed by orders in Council to hear appeals from any persons excluded from the Roll, and the following are the present Members of such Committee: The Lord President, The Earl of Granard, The Earl Beauchamp, The Lord Chamberlain, The Lord Balfour of Burleigh, The Lord Dunedin, The Lord Shaw of Dunfermline, Lord Strathclyde, The Lord Carnock, The Lord Stuart of Wortley, The Secretary of State for the Home Department, The Right Hon. Sir Frank C. Lascelles, The Right Hon. Sir Herbert E. Maxwell, Bt., The Right Hon. Charles Scott Dickson, Lord Justice Clerk, and The Right Hon. Sir Henry Primrose.

REGISTRY AND LIBRARY.

2, MITRE COURT, TEMPLE, LONDON E.C.4.

IN the Spring of 1908 an informal meeting of Knights Bachelor was held in the House of Commons, primarily with the object of taking into consideration the action of the Walker Trustees of Edinburgh, as holders of the office of Usher of the White Rod, in demanding the payment of fees to them by the recipients of honours, and it was decided to form a society of such Knights to disclaim and contest their rights in the matter.

The present Vice-Principal (The Rt. Hon. Sir William Bull, M.P., J.P.), was asked to act as a convener of a formal meeting, with the result that this Society was formed, and a council and officers elected.

The objects of the Society which was formally constituted on April 27, 1908, enjoying the approval of the Central Chancery of the Order of Knighthood, St. James's Palace, and the co-operation of the College of Arms, are to continue the Registers, dating from the thirteenth century, uphold the status, maintain the rights of Precedence, and generally to protect the interests of Knights Bachelor. In 1912 His Majesty King George V was pleased to command that the Society should be thenceforth known as "The Imperial Society of Knights Bachelor."

In the year 1902 a radical change was made in the procedure connected with promotions of Honour. The Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood (which was instituted by His late Majesty King Edward VII in that year) now controls all procedure connected with such promotion and ceremonial with certain exceptions. One of these exceptions concerns Knights Bachelor and some matters in connexion with them, which remain the province of the Home Office.

The Home Secretary, however, has been pleased to give his official recognition to the Society, and, in conformity with, and in pursuance of, such recognition, sends the Society an official notification of the dubbing of all Knights.

To many it will doubtless be a surprise to learn that from December 28, 1902, until the formation of the Society, there was no official Roll or Record of Knights Bachelor, and it was the first work of the Society to supply this want.

In the Middle Ages individual Heralds made occasional notes of the dubbings of Knights, but such notes are known and admitted to be most incomplete. In the seventeenth century a Register of Knighthood was instituted by King James the First. This register is preserved at the College of Arms, and extends down to the year 1902, but it is not in itself, and does not claim to be, a complete record of all Knights dubbed within this period.

There was a strong feeling among Knights Bachelor that a properly authenticated and officially recognized Roll of Knights should be brought into existence and continuously kept up to date; this duty of establishing a permanent record the Society has taken in hand. In addition to its own Roll of Knighthood, the Society has made arrangements to register at the College of Arms every duly authenticated Knighthood.

A question which has been put forward by many Knights Bachelor is one relating to an application to the Sovereign for the restoration of the badge or insignia to be worn on State or grand occasions. Henry VIII decreed for Knights Bachelor the collar of SS, and ordered its use to be restricted to the degree of a Knight.

The collar, as modified by the Tudor Sovereigns, was to consist of a series of the letter S, alternating with the portcullis, either linked together or set in close order on a blue-and-white ribbon, and having for a pendant or jewel a Tudor Rose. The above-mentioned decree occurs in Act 24, Henry VIII, cap. 13, which was made for the reformation of apparel. This Act was in its entirety repealed by James I, and so, probably accidentally, but no less surely, was extinguished the right of Knights Bachelor to wear the Tudor Rose, ribbon and collar. In the year 1627 King Charles I was moved that the Baronets and the Knights Bachelor might be allowed a distinctive riband and badge. The matter was referred to and favourably reported upon by the College of Arms, and the Attorney-General (Sir Robert Heath) received a command from the King concerning it. From the troubles, however, which shortly afterwards arose in the kingdom, His Majesty's intentions do not appear to have been carried into effect.

It is proposed, as soon as the membership of the Society shows that it thoroughly represents the Knights Bachelor of the Empire, to present a petition to His Majesty, praying him to graciously consider the question above referred to, so that they may be permitted to wear a badge or insignia as they did in ancient days; but the Council feel that the membership of the Society (although already over 650, and representing the existing majority of those upon whom the honour has been conferred) must still be largely increased before any application is formally made. The present absence of any distinctive badge to be worn at State or public functions is greatly felt by Knights Bachelor, particularly so in India, where high officials have to attend numerous State ceremonies.

It is, therefore, evident that the attainment of the more important of the objects which the Council has under consideration is dependent upon the Society receiving the support of the great majority of those on whom the honour of Knighthood has been conferred, and the Council trust that they may see a great number of the Knights who are not yet members of the Society entered in the Roll and registered at the College of Arms before the end of the present year.

The Registry and Library of the Society are at 2 Mitre Court, London, E.C.4, and any of the Officers will be pleased to advise on questions relating to Heraldry, grants of Arms, Genealogy, etc.

THE WORLD

JOURNAL FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

Founded in 1874 by the great Victorian Journalist, Edmund Yates.

EVERY TUESDAY. PRICE SIXPENCE.

Controlling Editor—WEST F. de WEND-FENTON.

THE WORLD'S distinguished and established audience of the Court, Society, the Country Houses, the Clubs and Regimental Messes, enables it to give just that intimate and authoritative value to its comment and criticism which is so valuable and so rare in modern journalism.

THE WORLD is an excellent foil to the flippant and "vain repetitions" of mere camera journalism, and for those who really care to think and talk sanely on current topics of real moment.

THE WORLD contains the most exhaustive and reliable Court and Society chronicles and comment. Vigorous and terse political articles purged of dulness and conventional stock opinions and phrases.

SPENDING POWER.

ADVERTISERS need to get to close quarters with people having money to spend, and not those whose expenditure necessarily ends with the purchase of the paper in which their advertisement appears.

The readers of THE WORLD possess spending power in a remarkable degree.
